APRIL 15, 2010

MARK YOUR CALENDARS!

LAVORP CHANGES FORMAT FROM A KEYNOTE SPEAKER TO KEYNOTE SPEAKERS:

In order to bring you a truly riveting story of remorse and forgiveness, LAVORP has invited Walter Everett and Michael Carlucci to tell of their journey that led them to becoming friends.

Walt was a pastor and his son was “gunned down in cold blood!” How does one forgive, if at all? Michael was a drug addict with no intention of killing, but he did. How do you express remorse? What happened to the pastor after a year of turmoil, not knowing what to do, feeling guilty about not being able to forgive. Shouldn’t all ministers? To hear Walt’s and Mike’s story first hand, plan on coming to our 2010 Annual Dinner. You won’t want to miss it!
