ANNUAL DINNER SPEAKER

Since 2006, Carol Lavery has served as the PA's Victim Advocate responsible for representing the rights/interests of crime victims before the Board of Probation and Parole and the Department of Corrections, She provides policy advice to the Legislature and the Governor's Administration on victim issues.

Ms. Lavery has been advocating for victims since 1974. She help found the PA Coalition Against Rape and the Coalition of PA Crime Victims Organizations and served as a past President of the National Organization for Victim Assistance. She was also the first Director of the Office of Victims' Services for the Pennsylvania Commission on Crime and Delinquency

Ms. Lavery holds an MPA from Marywood University, and a BA from Wilkes University.

Please join us to hear Ms. Lavery's reflections on the role that Restorative Justice has in serving victims of crime.

Are you Crafty? Artsy?

Support our Annual Dinner Silent Auction (April 19, 2012)

Do you make small furniture items or other hand crafts such as bird houses or the like? Or, maybe you have some art, gift certificates for dining, jewelry, pottery, time shares, vacation spots, collectibles, etc. A lovely gift you've never used? Silent Auction Chair, Barbi Dorsey (203-7221) and her sidekick, Robin Baldwin (293-0894) are asking for donated items worth $25 or more. Items will be picked up if you request or you can drop them off by prior arrangement at the CCP office, 53 N. Duke St., Suite 303, Lancaster, 397-2404. It's not too early to be thinking of your donation. Silent Auctions require a lot of time and effort. Receiving your donated items as soon as possible would be much appreciated.

After April 1, 2012, you can view most Silent Auction items on our web site www.ccp.org. Then, come prepared to bid on your favorite items at the dinner.
